

Bringing The Story Home- Ch. 18

GOD WATCHES OVER DANIEL/ DANIEL IN EXILE

Bringing The Story Home is a tool for you to use with your family to connect with the weekly lessons taught in "The Story" curriculum. Feel free to use these activities in a way that fits your family life. Do what works with the time you have each week.

Timeless Truth: The Lord's plans don't harm, but bring hope and success.

Bible Basis: Daniel 6:1–23; Jeremiah 30:1–3, 8, 10–11, 31:23–25, 29:10–14

Key Verse: [Daniel] went to his room three times a day to pray. He got down on his knees and gave thanks to his God. —Daniel 6:10

Parent Tips: Read the key point from the Sunday school lessons that relate to your children. Use the Table Talk questions to start a discussion around the dinner table during the week. The Living Faith activity encourages you to have a family sleepover. The Extra Mile looks at God's protection through his angels.

Get The Point: God's loving protection and godly relationships carry me through trying times.

Table Talk:

- Daniel followed God's rules, instead of the king's, and got in trouble. Have you ever gotten in trouble for doing the right thing? If so, what happened?
- Daniel prayed even though he knew it could cost him his life. What are some things you pray about?
- Daniel's punishment for praying to God was to be thrown into the lions' den. Everybody take turns doing their best lion's roar (even parents). Who protected Daniel from the lions?
- King Darius knew Daniel served God. The king even said, "You always serve your God faithfully. So may he save you" (Daniel 6:16). Daniel showed King Darius true faith in God with his actions (by praying and trusting him for protection) without saying a word. What are some actions you can take to show others you serve the one true God?
- Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah (or Belteshazzar, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego) were taken from Judah and brought to Babylon. But they refused to give up God's rules and follow new customs. Have you ever been in a situation where you felt you had to abandon God's standards to fit in?
- Daniel and his friends ate vegetables and drank water, instead of eating the king's food. What happened?
- How else did Daniel and his friends stand out?
- Is always doing things God's way a bad thing? If not, why is it so hard to ~~make to~~ always follow God? How was Daniel able to always follow God?

Living Faith: Daniel was forced to have a sleepover with some hairy, scary friends. Follow his example—sort of—by planning a family sleepover. You can do it in your bedroom, a living room, or family room. Pick either a Friday or Saturday night and plan ahead to make it fun. At the beginning you can pray, "God you protected Daniel during his sleepover with the lions, and we know you'll be with us tonight, too. Amen."

Try these ideas or make up some of your own to create some family memories:

- Play "Simon Says."
- Play one of your kids' favorite board games.
- Put together a puzzle.
- Watch a video and make popcorn.

- Have everybody write down a tongue twister (or make one up). Fold up each paper and put it in a hat. Take turns drawing one and trying to say the tongue twister five times fast.
- Play charades. Have family members act out the title to a favorite song, movie, or TV show.
- Hide the thimble. Take turns hiding a thimble (or other small object) in the room with nobody looking. As everybody searches, the “hider” gives clues by saying, “You’re getting warmer” (if a person is close to finding it) or “You’re getting colder” (if a person is going the wrong direction).
- Share characteristics of each person that you appreciate.
- Make a yummy dessert or snack as a family.
- Go to bed a little later than normal (for younger children); then wake up in the morning, cook breakfast, and clean up as a family.

Extra Mile: God's protecting angels show up a couple of times during this chapter of The Story. First, when Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego are thrown into the fiery furnace, King Nebuchadnezzar sees four people in the flames—instead of three. He exclaims, “The fourth man looks like a son of the gods” (Daniel 3:25). Then when Daniel is thrown into the lions' den, he tells King Darius, “My God sent his angel. And his angel shut the mouths of the lions (Daniel 6:21).

- Do you think God sends his protecting angels today?

Angels are specially created beings by God. They serve the wishes of their heavenly father.

Look at these other verses about angels:

Exodus 14:19–20 (with Moses and Israelites fleeing Egypt)

Judges 6:12–22 (with Gideon)

Matthew 2:13–20 (with Joseph, to help protect the baby Jesus)

Prayer Time: Martin Luther wrote two prayers for all members of the family to use that ask God to send his angels to protect us. Find times this week to pray these prayers, perhaps they can become part of your daily routine.

LUTHER'S MORNING PRAYER

I thank you, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

LUTHER'S EVENING PRAYER

I thank you, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept me this day; and I pray that You would forgive me all my sins where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For into Your hands, I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.
