

Bringing The Story Home- Ch. 26

THE HOUR OF DARKNESS

Bringing The Story Home is a tool for you to use with your family to connect with the weekly lessons taught in "The Story" curriculum. Feel free to use these activities in a way that fits your family life. Do what works with the time you have each week.

Timeless Truth: God gives eternal life to those who believe in Jesus Christ.

Bible Basis: John 13:21-30, 14:1-15; Matthew 26:26-28; Matthew 26:33-35; John 18:4-10; Luke 22:51-62, 23:32-45; Matthew 27:46-49; John 19:30

Key Verse: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God. Trust in me also."---John 14:1

Resource: The Story for Children, Chapter 26

Parent Tips: Read the key point from the Sunday school lessons that relate to your children. Use the Table Talk questions to start a discussion around the dinner table during the week. The Living Faith activity has family members wash each other's feet. The Extra Mile shows your family a couple of videos set to Chris Tomlin's song "Jesus Messiah."

Get The Point: Jesus died for our sins so we can be with him forever. His free love is for all those who believe in him.

Table Talk:

If you didn't know how it was going to turn out, this would be the saddest chapter of The Story. A lot of terrible things happened to Jesus. He was arrested; his friends let him down, and he was beaten and killed. When Jesus asked his disciples to pray for him, they fell asleep instead.

- Talk about a time that your friends let you down?
- Why is it so hard to stay awake sometimes when you're praying at night?
- How do you think the disciples could've encouraged each other to stay awake—would pinching each other have worked?
- After all the miracles they'd seen, why did the disciples abandon Jesus?
- Don't you think they would've had more faith?
- Will Jesus ever let you down? Why?

Living Faith:

In a poignant act of service, Jesus washes the disciples' feet at the Last Supper. He was the ultimate leader and the ultimate servant. As parents, display that same kind of servant leadership by washing your children's feet. You'll need a basin of warm water and a towel. The idea isn't to scrub and clean the person's feet. You just need to gently bathe the feet with water and dry them with a towel. As you wash their feet, tell your children the way you want to serve them (i.e. by providing food and place to live, by showing them how to serve Jesus, by encouraging them to be their best).

After you've washed your children's feet, give them the opportunity to wash yours. If they want to, your children can let you know how they want to serve you. When you've cleaned up from the foot washing, put on a video or some music and have family members give each other foot rubs. A good-smelling lotion can make this even more enjoyable. Be wary of family members with ticklish feet—they tend to kick when they're rubbed. You can add to this experience by reading John 13:1-16 and by asking these questions:

- What most surprises you about Jesus washing his disciples' feet?
- Do you think it was hard for Jesus to wash Judas' feet, knowing that Judas would soon betray him?

- Do you think it's important for leaders to show they love and care for the people they're leading?
- What are some other ways that Jesus showed the disciples that he loved them?

Extra Mile: Chris Tomlin's song "Jesus Messiah" has a beautiful message that goes along with this chapter of The Story. Watch one or both of these videos on You Tube:

- "Chris Tomlin-Jesus Messiah" is better for younger children and can be found at www.youtube.com/watch?v=rIBAf\_SKwPQ&feature
- "Easter-Jesus Messiah-Chris Tomlin" features more graphic images and a strong message at www.youtube.com/watch?v=pcSnYTjHmiY&feature

After you've watched one or both videos, talk about the parts of each video that you liked the best. What lyrics from the song impacted you?

Prayer Time: Dear Jesus, We give you all the praise and glory for your suffering and death on our behalf. Words do little to express our deepest love for you. Thank you for defeating sin, death, and the power of the devil. Help us as we look for ways to serve others with the kind of love you have for us. Amen.
