

Bringing The Story Home- Ch. 27

THE RESURRECTION

Bringing The Story Home is a tool for you to use with your family to connect with the weekly lessons taught in "The Story" curriculum. Feel free to use these activities in a way that fits your family life. Do what works with the time you have each week.

Timeless Truth: Jesus fulfilled the prophecies by rising from the dead.

Bible Basis: Matthew 28:2–8; Luke 24:36–49; John 21:1–6; Matthew 28:16–20

Key Verse: "He is not here! He has risen, just as he said he would." —Matthew 28:6

Parent Tips: Read the key point from the Sunday school lessons that relate to your children. Use the Table Talk questions to start a discussion around the dinner table during the week. The Living Faith activity shows your family how to bake some special rolls. The Extra Mile encourages a family discussion of what Jesus resurrection means for you.

Get The Point: God raised Jesus from the dead. God gives me new life, too.

Table Talk:

- Jesus appeared to several different people after rising from the dead. Each incident was very different. Talk about each one:
- Mary Magdalene was doubled-over crying at the tomb when Jesus showed up and she didn't recognize him. Why do you think she didn't recognize him? Why did Jesus not want her to hold onto him?
- Cleopas and a friend were walking to Emmaus when Jesus started talking to them about recent events. Jesus explained what all the Scriptures said about him. When Cleopas and his friend recognized Jesus, he disappeared. How surprised do you think they were? What did they learn from Jesus?
- When Jesus appeared to the disciples, he asked for something to eat. Why did he do that? Talk about what it would've been like for the disciples to see their beloved Jesus again.
- Thomas missed Jesus' first appearance to the disciples and said he wouldn't believe unless he touched the holes in Jesus' hands. When Jesus appeared, Thomas believed without touching the holes. Why?
- Jesus said people are more blessed who believe without seeing. How does that make you feel about your relationship with Christ?
- Do you think you'll be able to appear in different places when you're in heaven?

Living Faith: When the stone rolled away, the tomb was empty. Jesus had risen! Make some empty tomb rolls to celebrate Jesus' resurrection. You'll need a tube of prepackaged crescent rolls, jumbo marshmallows, butter, cinnamon, and sugar. These rolls make a great breakfast treat or add a sweet taste to dinner.

Get all the ingredients together and gather your family. Have somebody separate the dough into triangles. Overlap two of the triangles and roll them out, so they stick together. Brush a little butter on the dough and sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar. Place a marshmallow inside the dough and pinch all the ends together to cover it. It's important that the dough completely covers the marshmallow, so it's totally enclosed in a "tomb." Follow these same steps with all the dough. Bake the rolls according to the directions on the package. Allow to cool. When you bite into these golden brown "tombs," they're now empty—just like Jesus' tomb on Easter morning! Praise God for raising Jesus from the dead.

Extra Mile: Jesus rising from the dead may be the most history-altering event ever recorded. When Christ defeated death, he also defeated the devil's schemes that started back in the Garden of Eden. By eating the fruit, Adam and Eve created a separation between humans and God. Satan doesn't want us to have a relationship with our heavenly Father. Jesus' perfect life, death, and resurrection make it possible for us to know God intimately again.

Talk to each other about what it's like to know God personally. Share what Jesus' resurrection means for each of you personally. Jesus' resurrection dealt the ultimate blow to Satan, but the devil still tries to trap us in sin and make us forget Jesus' sacrifice. Discuss some things you can do to help you withstand Satan's temptation.

Prayer Time: Dear God, just as you raised Jesus from the dead, I know that one day you will also raise me. Thank you for making me your child through baptism, giving me new life. Help me to always remember whose I am. Thank you for sending Jesus to earth to win victory over Satan so that I can live with you forever in heaven. Amen
